

Bio

Troy James also known as Tiki Jay One is an LA based urban landscapist recognized by such publications such as Time magazine, for creating an art gallery of the urban streets in Los Angeles. Troy James' (Tiki Jay One) work has been seen in numerous art exhibitions, and has numerous published articles on his visionary program to street art. Troy James has learned that constantly questioning tradition can one truly understand every aspect of design. Another facet to the work of Troy James is in the form of Interactive Product design. A passionate and disciplined designer with a vision to create a better world, a greener world for human kind through the problem solving wonders of design. Every single year concurrent at Otis College of Art and Design Troy James has led the live painting project for the school's Storytelling Festival. While in school Troy James has had great opportunity working freelance with many companies such as Tajima Creative, Disney Store, Remo Drums, Laing Luxury, Charles Hollis Jones, and some set design for FX's The Riches' while still maintaining a 3.5 GPA. His program after being released from the tethers of college is to secure a position at a prominent company. Saving money and networking his way into his own design firm. A firm to address the inefficiencies that run daily life, and create problem solving functional art in the form of designer products. I thought I told you that I don't stop, thought I told you that I don't stop